Sept. 27
8:30 AM-12 Midnight Special
Happily for the history of Gay Liberation, Walt Whitman precisely dates his resolution "To celebrate the need of comrades": an "afternoon" in September, 1859. The poem recording his resolution first appears in the 1860 edition of LEAVES OF GRASS, as number one in the new "Calamus" section, whose theme is male-male love.

Therefore, WBAI inaugurates an annual Gay Day to fall without fail upon the last Saturday in September of each year. Starting at 8:30 AM and continuing until midnight (with the exception of the News broadcast), the Gay Men's Dept. will present a day of programming on issues of importance to the gay male community. Programs will include: Gay music and poetry, Walt Whitman's Life & Times, A Forum on Gay Male Sexuality, Gay Radio for Young People, Gay American History, Third World Perspectives, and much more. Produced by the Gay Men's Dept.

PACIFICA LOOKS AT ITS FBI FILE

Under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) individuals and organizations have the right to get copies of files kept on them by government agencies. Pacifica has received over 1,000 pages of its files.

This material is a rich source of historical information on Pacifica. It also provides a fascinating chronicle of the interest in Pacifica's activities taken by government investigative agencies from time to time over the past 30 years.

Some evidence of FBI interest in Pacifica has turned up in the files of former staff members of Pacifica which they have personally obtained under the Freedom of Information Act. We are interested in hearing of any such material. If you have obtained your own file under the FOIA, and there are references to Pacifica in it, please contact Pacifica's historian, Vera Hopkins, at 2217 Shattuck Avenue, Berkeley, CA 94704 (848-0773).
